

The Shark Times

Weekly newsletter from Division 1

December 5, 2008

Contents

From Ms. Crozier
Assignments and Tests
Book of the Week
Around the school
Sports
Student Contribution

FROM THE DESK OF MS. CROZIER

December has arrived and we are enjoying some of the fun activities that this time of year brings. Students are currently working on gingerbread houses that will be entered in the Minter Garden gingerbread house contest in the group category. Please go and have a look at the Minter Garden store at 10015 Young Rd. They will be displayed from Sat. Nov. 22 to Fri Dec 12. Take time to vote for your favorite!

Report cards go home December 5, 2008. I am pleased with all of the students' progress. Please be sure to call or drop in if you have any questions.

Homework assignments last week (Nov. 24-28)

Monday -Pg.186 in booklet. Practice multiplication 6-12
Tuesday -Review of place value
Wednesday -Multiplication and factors review
Thursday -Multiplication practice
Friday - No Homework

In Progress and/or Upcoming Tests and Units of Study

Math -Problem solving
Science - Leaf classification key
Social Studies - U.N. Charter of human rights
Language Arts -Peace poems

Book of the Week

Title: Tess

Author: Jocelyn Reehe

Review: This book is about a girl, named Tess, who lives in Castle Dunharbar. Tess is 13 years old, when unexpectedly, her mother dies, Tess and her little brother move to Vancouver Island to live with their dad...

Reviewed by: Norma Smith

Around the School

On Saturday, November 22, kids, parents, and teachers all went to the art center to watch The Barber Shop show. They watched more than 15 people singing folk songs. Breanna said it was a blast. The people who sang the songs are very talented and that there was a lot of audience participation. Overall, it was a ton of fun.